

SAT[®] Workshop

Informed students make better choices.

The Princeton Review is proud to partner with Beverly Hills High School to provide BHHS students with this intense, three hour workshop on the SAT. Students looking ahead to the SAT in May, June, or October will get the basics on content, structure, and strategy, as well as tips on how to prepare in the weeks ahead.

Finding time for all your commitments is no easy task. This three hour workshop was created with a busy student like you in mind.

Designed by a team of test-prep experts, our SAT workshop is lead by an expert instructor who will provide exclusive test-taking strategies. The Princeton Review SAT workshop will help alleviate test-day anxiety and will introduce techniques that can help make a difference in student scores.

SAT Workshop for Sophomores and Juniors!

Click here to enroll!

or go <http://tinyurl.com/BHSSATworkshop>

Date: Saturday, March 1, 2014

Location: EDC

Time: 10:00 AM –1:00 PM

Cost: $25 per student. Make check payable to Beverly Hills High School PTSA and bring the day of the workshop . All proceeds go to BHHS PTSA to support the Counseling Department. No cash accepted.

*Please visit www.princetonreview.com/guarantee for complete rules and details . SAT is a registered trademark of ETS.
The Princeton Review is not associated with Princeton University.

The Princeton Review[®]