Informed students make better choices.

The Princeton Review is proud to partner with Beverly Hills HS College Center and PTSA to provide BHHS students with this intense, three hour workshop on the ACT. Students looking ahead to the ACT will get the basics on content, structure, and strategy, as well as tips on how to tackle this exam.

Designed by a team of test-prep experts, our ACT workshop is lead by an expert instructor who will provide exclusive test-taking strategies. The Princeton Review ACT workshop will help alleviate test-day anxiety and will introduce techniques that can help make a difference in student scores.
