The judging criteria was: Thematic content. Response invoked in viewer. Technical skills and craftsmanship.

A big thank you to our three Advisory jurors, Franny Rennie; Deborah Frank and Ellen Lutwak. All said how difficult the judging was because there were many wonderful choices. The jurors felt that the discussion and insights each reviewer shared into their choices made the judging process harder and yet all the more interesting and meaningful to them. Congratulations! to all participants!

PTSA/BHUSD PARENT/STAFF BOOK CLUB SPRING MEETING WILL BE HELD THURSDAY, JUNE 6TH AT 7:30 PM Looking for a fantastic book to read over Spring Break? Ayad Akhtar's novel, American Dervish, is the next book we'll be discussing as part of the PTSA BHUSD Parent/Teacher Book Club and is also the book chosen for this year's Hero Project at BHHS. (The Hero Project is a One Book One School event, which encourages all students, staff and parents to read a common book.) We are honored to have the author, Ayad Akhtar, join us for our evening discussion, which will be moderated by professional book club facilitator and BHHS English teacher Julie Goler. Ayad will discuss his beautiful story about a Muslim boy growing up in the Midwest who is conflicted by his feelings toward Islam. He is an actor, playwright, and screenwriter who will make the prose that you read in the book come alive. If you can't find the time to read, try Audible.com. The audible version, read by the author who is also an actor, is a terrific option.

Cost is $25 for parents and $10 for teachers.
