New Office Work Job Posting as of 11/17: Local insurance agency is looking for a student with a minimum GPA of 3.2 to perform various office tasks (scanning documents into client management system; downloading/attaching documents, sending out mail); assisting owner in small personal administrative oriented matters in the office as well. Office is looking for student comfortable with computers and technology. Starting compensation is $11. If you are interested, email Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org with your resume attached (NO TYPOS!) and also leave a copy of it with Ms. Dubin in the Career Center (Room 292) or in the bottom row of the plastic wall boxes to the right of the Career Center door if the center is closed (in the folder marked "Job Resumes"). The agency is located at the corner of Beverly Drive and Gregory Way.

Looking for an Internship? The City of Beverly Hills has a wonderful internship program and welcomes high school students. Apply for one with the City of Beverly Hills by taking the following two steps: 1) Ask a teacher or counselor to send Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhUSD.org an email recommending you; and 2) Send your name, cell phone number, and resume (NO typos) to Cindy Dubin an email at cdubin@bhUSD.org. The subject line of your email should be "Interested in City of Beverly Hills Internship" and you can indicate in your email with which department you might like to intern. To help you decide what department would be a good fit for you, here is a list of the 10 departments, along with a short description of the type of work done therein. We are so excited to work with the City to place our students in these wonderful positions right here in our own backyard! For questions contact Cindy Dubin, Career Center Room 292, at cdubin@bhUSD.org.
