Last day to tour the Connecting Cultures Mobile Museum, in the BHHS Bosse Library. Thanks to everyone who made this exhibit a huge success!

Please join Sandra Tsing Loh writer, radio personality, and actress for a discussion of her latest hysterically funny and painfully real memoir, The Madwoman in the Volvo (title is linked). Cheryl Strayed, author of Wild says "The Madwoman in the Volvo reads like a weekend away with the best friend you ever had—blazingly vulnerable, scorchingly smart, and funny as hell. It's both an intimate portrait of one woman as she approaches menopause and a full-throated cultural howl about what it means to be female and forty or fifty or sixty something in America today. I was filled with recognition as I read the book's first pages and flooded with gratitude by the end. . . . A beautiful book you're going to miss after you've read the last page." (Cheryl Strayed).

Don't miss this rare opportunity to read and discuss The Madwoman in the Volvo with the woman who wrote it.

Julie Goler, Honors English teacher and book group facilitator what will moderate what will be a fun and lively discussion.

Thursday, January 29, 7 PM Space is limited and reservations are required. Please email bhhsbookevent@gmail.com to reserve your space.

Amazing Career Offerings at Beverly High - CTE Info Night December 4th! Did you know that we have a Sports Medicine course which is a UC Approved Physical Science offering and which culminates with a professional Sports Medicine level 1 certificate? Did you know that you could produce music in our 2x week after school Audio Production lab with state of the art software? Or that you can take Psychology which is also a UC Approved Science Elective? Or that you could compete in TV or Radio Broadcasting or Marketing? Or that you can learn to be a chef catering events through our Culinary Arts program? Or that Beverly High's Administration of Justice class is geared for those of you interested in law or law enforcement? If you would like to pursue one of these amazing offering and career pathways, come with your parents to our information evening on Thursday, December 4th from 7:00 pm to 8:00 pm (BHHS Student Cafeteria, 3rd Floor). Some of the courses are available this coming second semester and have flexible hours (e.g., lunch, after school). We will gather for a broad overview of our BHHS ROP course offerings, and then break out into smaller groups, designed to provide information for current parents about all of the second semester competitions and activities, as well as course overviews for prospective students or their parents. Representatives from each of these courses (Audio Production, Administration of Justice, Culinary Arts, Sports Medicine, Sports Marketing, DECA Marketing Club, Psychology, KBEV's Broadcasting and Production Courses, Robotics, Entrepreneurship) will be present. For information regarding the evening, please contact Cindy Dubin, Director ROP/CTE at cdubin@bhUSD.org.

Please come support BHHS Dance Company at Fatburger Beverly Hills (474 N Beverly Drive) on Thursday, December 4th from 4:00-8:30 pm. A percentage of proceeds will benefit BHHS DCO. Dine in or take out. Please mention BHHS DCO.
