03/04 Making the Most of Your College Visits

The Beverly Hills Women's Club Junior Members are seeking new and motivated female community service team players. This is a great way to meet new friends and do community service in your neighborhood and the city at large. Some of our target projects this year are: raising money for disadvantaged teens, visiting senior centers, serving at various soup kitchens, and gathering items for monthly food drives. If you are interested please contact BHWC Juniors President, Mishka Asli at mishkaasli@yahoo.com. For parents seeking more information, please contact BHWC President Mumsey Nemiroff @ 310-276-5804 or visit us at 1700 Chevy Chase Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210.

Summer Opportunities – Please see the bulletin board outside House A for a variety of summer opportunities. There are programs in community service, test prep, pre-college, the arts, and a variety of other areas.

Fox Writing Contest: Like classical mythology? Enjoy creative writing? This is the contest for you! Create your own take on Hercules' Twelve Labors and submit your work to Mrs. Fine in Room 212 by Friday, February 28. Email afine@bhusd.org for details. Bona Fortuna!

Are you NEW to the U. S. within the last three years? Come to the After School Newcomer Technology Center on Thursdays after school! This is an afterschool support program especially for YOU! You can use websites and software programs to improve your English, study for classes, or do your homework. We will explore everything from the Khan Academy to your very own teachers' online resources and websites. You may even be helping each other! No grades, no lecture-just work on whatever you want to work on, get help, and see yourself improve!
