If you registered to take the SAT in October but were not able to select Beverly Hills HS as your test center, you can now change your test center. You must call the College Board at (866) 756-7346 to request this change. When you call, please have your Admission Ticket with you, and please ask them to waive the $28 change fee. Because Beverly Hills HS was not available as a test center at the time that you registered, you should be entitled to a free test center change. Do not make the change online. Please call ASAP as space on our campus is limited.
