WHAT'S NEW AND JUST ADDED

The Fifth Annual Edible Books Festival surpassed all expectations! Many, many thanks to the faculty, staff, students, and judges who participated, visited, or encouraged others to do so. Visit the Bosse Library today for pictures, prizes, and leftover dishware, and check the website for photographs of all the entries.

The Beverly Hills High School Performing Arts Department and Michael J. Libow, in association with the Beverly Hills Education Foundation, are proud to present 2015's Spring Musical, Guys and Dolls, Frank Loesser's celebrated musical comedy about rolling the dice and falling in love under the bright lights of Broadway. This production features a company of over 70 student actors, singers, dancers, instrumentalists, and technicians from all grade levels. Guys and Dolls will be performed in the KL Peters Auditorium at Beverly Hills High School March 11 at 2pm and Thursday, March 12-Saturday, March 14 at 7:30pm. Tickets are $15 for reserved seating, $10 for adults, $7 for students, and $1 with an ASB card. We look forward to seeing you all at what many consider to be the perfect musical comedy!

MINI-PSYCHOLOGISTS WANTED! The Beverly Hills Academic Tutoring Program is seeking volunteers to work with elementary school children having social and/or academic difficulties. High School students will receive community service hours! For more info contact Adrienne Weise at adriennetutor@gmail.com or call 310-285-6810

Are you a 9th grader interested in the Medical field?

Applications for the Medical Science Academy are available in all of the administrative houses, from all Biology teachers and on our BHHS website (click on the link Medical Science Aca). Don't miss out on this exciting opportunity to gain exposure to the possibilities in medicine. Student applications, parental consent forms, teacher and counselor recommendations are due to Ms. Lynch on Friday March 27. If you would like to know more about our program, an informational meeting will be scheduled shortly.

There are only 76 yearbooks remaining. Buy your yearbook for 20% off the final price now when you visit: jostensyearbooks.com

Audio Production is back!!! Have you ever been interested in audio production? Thinking about a career in the music industry? Want to create, mix, and master your own music? Audio Production class with Mr. Breitman is the class for you! Whether you're interested in classical, alternative, electronic or rap, Audio Production is a beginner's course for anyone who wants to explore their creative side; Room 191 Tuesdays and Thursdays at 3:00p.m. Hurry and sign up, because enrollment for the class will close soon! For more information, email Mr. Breitman at abreitman@bhUSD.org

Peer Tutoring: Peer Tutoring for this semester is Monday – Thursday at lunch at 3:00 – 4:00 pm in the Career Center.

Interested in being a Peer Tutor: Please email Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhUSD.org, if you are interested in being a tutor. We are in need of students who can assist us with our 3:00 – 4:00 pm sessions, so come get involved in this rewarding opportunity. Also a great way to earn lots of community service points! We'll hold a short orientation for new tutors in a week or so, so email this week to get on our email list for that notice.

The BHHS Bosse Library has U.S. Postal Service “forever” postage stamps for sale – they are $.60 each.

Have you ever wanted to save the environment? Do you throw out those empty ink and toner cartridges? Do you want to help alumni? Well now you can! Save the environment by bringing in your used empty ink and toner cartridges. So, Stop by House A to drop them off. All cartridges will be reused and the funds raised will go to a Beverly Alum's college tuition. Its a win win!!

SUMMER Business Academy Through UC Berkeley

The U.C. Berkeley Business Academy (now in its 7th year) provides a two-week introduction to the business world from the Haas School of Business. The program offers 100 high school students an exclusive opportunity to gain hands-on learning experience in Entrepreneurship, Case study, Corporate Social Responsibility, Financial Accounting, Marketing and other business fundamentals. This is done while exploring a business idea, learning how to implement a business idea, creating a business web site or business plan or critically thinking through a case study that deals with social impact. Attached is a copy of the flyer for your review. Monday, July 6 – Friday, August 7 all day at UC Berkeley Haas School of Business. To apply: Program: Applications are available on <http://tinyurl.com/g9dlpdb>. Students are required to fill out an application and write an essay responding to the six prompts. If you have any questions, please contact Olive Davis at omdavis@haas.berkeley.edu or call (510) 643-0923. If you'd like help with a resume, please contact Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org. This is an independent program unrelated to BHUSD, and is not therefore, endorsed by BHUSD or BHHS.

Internship in Field of Education: If you are a motivated, articulate, outgoing student with some computer background, you should consider applying for a very flexible internship at a non-profit entity. The owner, a BHHS parent, looks forward to mentoring students interesting in learning more about teaching kids life skills, marketing, public relations and operating a business. The company is in Westwood but some of the work can be done offsite on a computer. Email your resume to Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org, indicating in the subject line "Educational Internship in Westwood".

Artists Looking for TA position? If you have an art background and would like to be a TA in one of our outstanding Fine Art and Tech Art Department Offerings, please indicate that in your email to Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org.

Teaching Assistant Positions for 2nd Semester: If you are interested in being placed as a TA this coming 2nd semester, in a campus classroom or office, email Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org. In order to be a TA you must be enrolled in one of our Work Experience sections (we have some that meet at lunch, Period 1 and Period 2), and meet the required minimum GPA 3.0 unless waived by a particular teacher and the student's counselor), so discuss with your counselor if coming to Work Experience twice per week will fit in your schedule. If you are currently serving as at TA this semester, please confirm your interest to continue with your teacher/supervisor so they can plan accordingly for next semester as well; and make sure you keep up your WE enrollment and participation.

Looking for an Internship? The City of Beverly Hills has a wonderful internship program and welcomes high school students. Apply for one with the City of Beverly Hills by taking the following two steps: 1) Ask a teacher or counselor to send Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org an email recommending you; and 2) Send your name, cell phone number, and resume (NO typos) to Cindy Dubin an email at cdubin@bhusd.org. The subject line of your email should be "Interested in City of Beverly Hills Internship" and you can indicate in your email with which department you might like to intern. To help you decide what department would be a good fit for you, here is a list of the 10 departments, along with a short description of the type of work done therein. We are so excited to work with the City to place our students in these wonderful positions right here in our own backyard! For questions contact Cindy Dubin, Career Center Room 292, at cdubin@bhusd.org.

The Kenneth L. Peters Memorial Scholarship Award was established in 2014 in honor of the legendary former principal and superintendent to provide scholarships to deserving Beverly Hills High School seniors who share Mr. Peters passion for education. The scholarship of $2,500 will be awarded to a selected student. The Scholarship seeks to find a high school senior who has a passion for education and potentially an interest in a career in education. A preference will be given to those that are considering a career in education and to those in the greatest need. The scholarship application is available in House C, the deadline is Wednesday, March 25.
