NEW (4/14/2015) - Paid Part Time Internship for BHHS Athletes/Students Now through Summer 2015 - Calling all athletes who are also interested in working with a tech start up which is building a sports social network. If you are interested, come pick up a flyer in the plastic wall display bins on the wall in the hall to the right of the Career Center door Room 292 (bottom level); and then email Alex Norman at alexsnorman@gmail.com indicating in the subject line that you are a "BHHS Athlete/Student Interested in Paid Internship". Include a short description of yourself in the email (sports background, why you'd like this opportunity). No resume required at this point. Most of the work will be remote (not at the office), though you'll need to be able to get to Santa Monica for a meeting or two so have to have transportation. Can start before end of year (4-6 hours per week) and internship would continue over the summer. There may be equipment requirements so see flyer for that info. You'll be giving feedback on the entity's new app. They are involving athlete/students from surrounding schools as well, so there are only a few spots for BHHS students. $11 per hour. Most of the info is in the flyer but you can contact Cindy Dubin cdubin@bhusd.org if you have questions.

study that deals with social impact. Attached is a copy of the flyer for your review. Monday, July 6 – Friday, August 7 all day at UC Berkeley Haas School of Business. To apply: Program: Applications are available on <http://tinyurl.com/q9dlpdb>. Students are required to fill out an application and write an essay responding to the six prompts. If you have any questions, please contact Olive Davis at omdavis@haas.berkeley.edu or call (510) 643-0923. If you'd like help with a resume, please contact Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org. This is an independent program unrelated to BHUSD, and is not therefore, endorsed by BHUSD or BHHS.

Artists Looking for TA position? If you have an art background and would like to be a TA in one of our outstanding Fine Art and Tech Art Department Offerings, please indicate that in your email to Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org.

Teaching Assistant Positions for 2nd Semester: If you are interested in being placed as a TA this coming 2nd semester, in a campus classroom or office, email Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org. In order to be a TA you must be enrolled in one of our Work Experience sections (we have some that meet at lunch, Period 1 and Period 2), and meet the required minimum GPA 3.0 unless waived by a particular teacher and the student's counselor), so discuss with your counselor if coming to Work Experience twice per week will fit in your schedule. If you are currently serving as at TA this semester, please confirm your interest to continue with your teacher/supervisor so they can plan accordingly for next semester as well; and make sure you keep up your WE enrollment and participation.

Looking for an Internship? The City of Beverly Hills has a wonderful internship program and welcomes high school students. Apply for one with the City of Beverly Hills by taking the following two steps: 1) Ask a teacher or counselor to send Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org an email recommending you; and 2) Send your name, cell phone number, and resume (NO typos) to Cindy Dubin an email at cdubin@bhusd.org. The subject line of your email should be "Interested in City of Beverly Hills Internship" and you can indicate in your email with which department you might like to intern. To help you decide what department would be a good fit for you, here is a list of the 10 departments, along with a short description of the type of work done therein. We are so excited to work with the City to place our students in these wonderful positions right here in our own backyard! For questions contact Cindy Dubin, Career Center Room 292, at cdubin@bhusd.org.
