Becoming a BHHS Teaching Assistant (a "TA"): If you are interested in becoming a TA for the fall semester, please follow these simple steps.

- 1) Starting August 20, check the Bulletin Board across from Room 290 for a list of available TA openings by teacher name.
- 2) Find a period that works in your schedule, and go talk to the teacher who is looking for a TA for that period to get permission.
- 3) If you get permission, please ask that teacher to email your counselor AND Ms. Reston of the College and Career Center confirming his or her permission.
- 4) After confirming your individual schedule, eligibility, and teacher permission, your counselor will enroll you as a TA!

For questions, contact Cindy Dubin cdubin@bhusd.org or Michelle Redston mredston@bhusd.org.

ATTENDANCE

PROCEDURES FOR READMITTANCE TO SCHOOL

Students and parents are requested to observe the following attendance procedures:

A. FULL DAY ABSENCE

1. On the first day of absence, the parent must call the Attendance Office (310-551-5125) between 7:30 and 10:00 a.m. stating the name of the student, the reason for the absence, and the approximate length of time the student will be out of school. If you do not know the length of the absence, you must call each day. When students return to school, they may report directly to class. This is the preferred method. If the parent is unable to call, the student must report directly upon his or her return, to the Attendance Office prior to 8:00 a.m. with a parental note. All notes will be verified.

B. PARTIAL DAY ABSENCE

1. If you need to leave school during the school day, parents should call the Attendance Office before 10:00 a.m. Notes (with student's name, student ID number, reason for absence, and phone number) must be dropped off in the Attendance Office BEFORE SCHOOL. During NUTRITION, pick up the PERMIT TO LEAVE SCHOOL from the Attendance Office. If you do not clear with the Attendance Office BEFORE leaving campus, you will receive an unexcused absence.

C. LEGAL REASONS TO BE OUT OF SCHOOL

1. Illness
2. Court/Medical appointment
3. Bereavement
4. Quarantine

(Please note- the Future Absence Form is available in the Attendance Office . Vacation travel will not be approved. A completed form must be submitted to your Assistant Principal at least five days in advance of requested date.)

D. The school only takes EMERGENCY messages for students.

- E. Go to the Attendance Office if you have an emergency reason to leave school (this includes illness). If the Attendance Office is closed, see your Assistant Principal or secretary.
