Please make sure you are purchasing the correct exam for your class.

Attention all Classics fans and creative writers! The Bernice L Fox Writing Contest is open! This year's theme is to take a "Wonder Woman" from classical history, mythology, or literature and create a reason for placing her in a time and place outside her usual one. Your "Wonder Woman" should use her superpowers/skills to solve a problem in that new time and place which stumped the natives. Please follow entry directions at <https://goo.gl/emq4hN> and see Mrs Fine for entry questions and submissions by Friday, March 2, 2018. Bona Fortuna!

January Wednesday Workshops at Lunch: Join us for career oriented workshops on various topics ranging from volunteer opportunities, to careers in hospitality, and beyond:

January 24th - LA Galaxy Panel of Speakers: Come to Room 290 as the LA Galaxy returns with a brand new panel of associates from various departments, including Communications, Game Presentation and Events, LA Galaxy Alumni and Programming, Partnership Activation and Ticket Services. Students attending the December LA Galaxy panel found the presentation very informative about the myriad of career opportunities in the sports industry.

January 17 (EDC): Reading Partners of Los Angeles (Mandatory Training Session for interested students). See January 10 entry for description of the program.

After-school Tutoring

Link: <https://www.bhhslibrary.com/tutoring>

Instructions: Go to bhhslibrary.com (or click on the LIBRARY link from the school's webpage, bhhs.bhusd.org), then click on CALENDARS on the top menu and choose TUTORING from the dropdown menu.

Peer Tutoring is Open for Business in December: students looking for help with homework or an upcoming quiz or test are welcome to come at lunch to the College and Career Center (Room 290) where we will have student tutors for one on one or small group assistance. Tutoring is on a first come, first serve basis, and help in any particular academic area will depend on the tutors who volunteer to work that week. Students interested in a certain discipline for which there isn't a tutor present, can discuss that issue in person on Tuesdays with the Peer Tutor Student Coordinator, Paris Rosen, so she can look into the possibility of finding a tutor for that certain level or subject for the following week. General questions can be directed to Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhusd.org.

College Monday Workshop Series -All sessions are in Room 290 during lunch
(*starred workshops are on Wednesday)

January 17, 2018* - How to Research Colleges - *And know I have a chance of getting in! (Wednesday workshop)

January 29, 2018 - Exploring College Majors - Guest Speaker Rob Schwartz

February 5, 2018 - Dissecting Your Transcript - Weighted GPA vs. Unweighted and what it all means!

Coffee with the Counselors- Once a month, BHHS counselors will host high school parents for Coffee with the Counselors, a special Q&A program designed to provide a casual environment where we can discuss college admissions related topics. Parents of all grades are welcome. Please join us for coffee, pastries, and dialogue-(guest speakers will be joining us to lead the discussion at some meetings) and don't forget to bring your questions! Please email Ms. Rowley at crowley@bhusd.org if you have any questions regarding this program. And thank you to our wonderful PTSA for sponsoring the hospitality.

8:00 a.m. – 9:00 a.m. in College Center (Room 290)

The Beverly Hills Unified School District publishes employment ads for the community as a public service but does not vetter nor endorse the employers or the nature of the work listed herein, nor is the District responsible or liable for any action or matter that results from any contact with or employment by any employer advertised herein.

Part-Time Work in Local Doctor's Office: Medical office within walking distance from BHHS is looking to hire a responsible 10th-12th grader interested in doing office work in the medical field. The hours would be after school until 5:30 PM. Between three to five days a week, to be determined. Pay is $10.50 hr. Tasks would include filing and preparing patient charts. Interested students should contact Dr. Mark Goodman, at 310 271-6889.

Seeds of Peace: Students in the 9th or 10th grade and interested in addressing domestic and international relations conflict issues could consider applying to the Seeds of Peace summer program. Seeds of Peace is a leadership development organization committed to transforming legacies of conflict into courage to lead change, and hosts two summer camps in Maine. One session is devoted to conflict within the United States, and the other involves the Middle East. Materials are still available in the plastic wall containers right outside of the College and Career Center or go to <https://www.seedsofpeace.org/programs/developing-leaders/camp/>. The application was extended to Thursday, February 1, 2018.

Pacific Pier Part-Time Jobs (JUST HIRED 2 BHHS STUDENTS AND STILL HIRING MORE!): Pacific Pier has many job openings for dynamic students (16 or older) in many different types of positions. Energetic and outgoing students (e.g. theater students!) could consider applying for a Game Attendant position or Ride Attendant or Merchandise Attendant position! Hospitality students could apply for the Food and Beverage positions (they need people right away for that department) or Ticketing Attendants! Engineering type students could apply to be a Ride Attendant! Retail minded students can consider the Merchandise Attendant or Ticketing Attendant positions! To apply, there are 2 mandatory first steps: 1) Go to www.pacpark.com/jobs to apply online AND 2) email Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhhsd.org noting "BHHS Pac Park Application Submitted" so Ms. Dubin has your name. After doing those two steps, applicants will be contacted by Pacific Pier if they are selected for an interview; and, since there are logistics issues for students working at Pacific Park (hours, transportation, etc.), we will be having a mandatory student/parent information session for students selected for an interview so the Pacific Park Human Resources Recruiter can come explain everything to make sure the expectations are clear to everyone. They are looking to hire now for many of the above positions, and soon for all of them in anticipation of the holiday season and winter break. For any other information contact Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhhsd.org.
