Requesting Letters of Recommendation & Transcripts, Deadlines/Important Information:

Seniors, it is your responsibility to request your letters of recommendation and any supplemental materials required for your applications appropriately and on time. Please see guidelines below and ensure that steps are complete. We encourage you to complete your Senior meeting with your counselor and continue attending college center events for further support.

- Letters of Recommendation: Request letters of recommendation from your teachers and counselor by October 1st for Early Applications and November 1st for Regular Applications. Request by asking in person and completing the Brag Sheet in Naviance for Counselors and any Teachers that ask for it. Ensure to continue requesting through the .org email. Officially request your recommenders directly through your applications and continue communicating with your recommenders throughout the process. <http://tinyurl.com/bhhsnaviance>
- Transcripts: Request your official transcript to go to your Common App, private/out-of-state and any colleges needing an official transcript initially through Parchment. Create a Parchment account at <https://www.parchment.com/u/registration/5653/account> and see Ms. Bennett with any questions in Rm. 263.
- SAT/ACT Scores: Officially request SAT/ACT scores to go to campuses requiring official scores. Students need to request officially on their Collegeboard or ACT account. If you have qualified for SAT/ACT fee waivers, you may get fees waived. Please note: Some colleges will allow you to self-report, so do read carefully what is required!

FAFSA Open October 1: Attend our Financial Aid: An inside look at maximizing college affordability when applying to colleges on October 4, 2018, 6:00 p.m., Salter Theater, all students and parents welcome, visit our Financial Aid page <http://tinyurl.com/bhhsfinancialaid> for support. Filling out the FAFSA and completing additional financial aid documents per college can open opportunities for scholarships (not solely need-based aid) and it is free! Some Private universities will require a CSS Profile which provides colleges additional information when determining what aid to give. <https://cssprofile.collegeboard.org/> Read carefully through the financial aid page of EACH university you attend.

Peer Tutoring Is Here! If you need help with homework or getting ready for a quiz or test, sign up for a free tutoring session from one of our great peer tutors who are here to help. We have a great new signup system this year to ensure that we'll have a tutor ready to address your specific needs. There are just TWO easy steps to take. 1) First, on any Monday afternoon or evening until 8 pm, go to this googledoc on any Monday to sign up for help in a certain subject. 2) Then the next day, Tuesday, come to Room 290 for your session. If you have questions, contact Cindy Dubin at cdubin@bhhsd.com <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1Xm3X3bKG5o3emKGZLfbGbe3TMaPHQK-vjMAY0QAZ5A0/edit>

Financial Aid: An inside look at maximizing college affordability when applying to colleges October 4, 2018, 6:00 p.m., Salter Theater

Join guest speaker Trevor Mizrahi from Premier College Guidance as he discusses in-depth case studies of getting the most financial aid as a family and reducing total college cost and debt. Review of FAFSA, need-based aid, merit-based aid and scholarships will also be discussed. Students and parents all grades welcome.

College Monday Workshop Series - All sessions are in room 290 during lunch on Mondays unless otherwise noted. Please sign up on Naviance.
