Join the Site Technology Advisory Committee (Site TAC)!

Students and Parents needed!

- Are you excited about the coming one-to-one computer program at the high school?
- Do you have insights to offer about educational software?
- Do you have concerns about liability or safety of the devices?
- Would you enjoy playing a role in establishing the vision and plan for where the school will be, technology-wise, in three years?
- Do you want to have a say in school policy about devices?

Meetings are every 4-6 weeks. If this committee sounds just right for you, please email Sue Leifield (sleifield@bhusd.com) or Erica Harper (eharper@bhusd.com) with your name and contact information.

Are you interested in technology? Do you like helping out staff? Would you like to meet students that share one or both of those interests? If the answer to any of those is yes, then The Norman Tech Squad is the club for you. The Norman Tech Squad is a student tech support society that serves the student body by teaching and offering hands-on support to teachers with their technology problems. If you're interested, email Dr. Rubenstein at srubenstein@bhusd.org

Dear BHHS Students,

We still have a few spaces left in the Early College Credit Program: Communication Studies 101 through West LA College. In line with our district goal of college and career readiness, we're excited to announce that BHUSD has partnered with West LA College to provide new opportunities for BHHS students to begin taking college courses on our campus and earn college credits during their high school years! Students will gain early exposure to college coursework guided by West LA College instructors with the support of the District.

How to Apply:

Students in grades 9 - 12 are eligible to apply. Please complete the application by retrieving the application from this link (<https://drive.google.com/open?id=1hP3M7Boxt07-jeHS20c3c4jicQ6Nzvok>) and return to your High School counselor by Friday, January 18.

Dates / Time / Location :

The Spring 2019 course starts Jan 22 through May 21, 2019. Students will attend classes on Tuesday evenings from 4:30pm - 7:20pm on BHHS campus (room location TBD).

Spring 2019 Course Description:

Communication Studies 101 (3 credits)

(Transferrable: University of California as 101 Public Speaking / California State University as Speech 101)

This beginning course provides a study of the principles of communication and audience analysis. These principles are applied to everyday social and business relationships. Students are trained in the principle and practice of effective speech composition and delivery.

Please contact Dustin Seemann (dseemann@bhUSD.com) or your student's counselor with any questions.

Summer Discovery, Friday, February 1, 2019, Lunch, College Center

Come meet Summer Discovery! Lauren Schwab will be here on February 1st and will talk to you about their pre-college enrichment, academic, and internship programs and answer any questions you have. Summer Discovery is a pre-college enrichment program for high school students that combines academics with fun activities. Programs are run across 14 college campuses including UCLA, UCSB, University of Pennsylvania, University of Michigan, and Georgetown University, among others. Students experience college life while gaining independence and self-confidence. Courses are taught by university faculty and students live on campus, exploring university towns for a robust, complete pre-college experience. For 53 years, Summer Discovery has helped more than 100,000 students learn, grow, and help get ready for college.
