Join the Site Technology Advisory Committee (Site TAC)!

Students and Parents needed!

- Are you excited about the coming one-to-one computer program at the high school?
- Do you have insights to offer about educational software?
- Do you have concerns about liability or safety of the devices?
- Would you enjoy playing a role in establishing the vision and plan for where the school will be, technology-wise, in three years?
- Do you want to have a say in school policy about devices?

Meetings are every 4-6 weeks. If this committee sounds just right for you, please email Sue Leifield (sleifield@bhUSD.com) or Erica Harper (eharper@bhUSD.com) with your name and contact information.

Are you interested in technology? Do you like helping out staff? Would you like to meet students that share one or both of those interests? If the answer to any of those is yes, then The Norman Tech Squad is the club for you. The Norman Tech Squad is a student tech support society that serves the student body by teaching and offering hands-on support to teachers with their technology problems. If you're interested, email Dr. Rubenstein at rubenstein@bhusd.org
